The Reddy Family

The Reddy Family occupied Number 37 Main Street Gorey from 1880's and into the early 20th century. The business operated as a drapers.

The Reddy Family were of four sisters; Elizabeth, Mary, Catherine (Katie) and Bridget. Their father was Patrick Reddy who was a farmer. The Reddy's originate from Askamore.

Miss Reddy's outside their shop; M Fitzpatrick Collection.

In 1901 James Warrington worked as a watchmaker in Ebb's Jewellers (Mary James now occupies this building as a Jewellers).

James Warrington was born in County Dublin as noted in the 1901 census. His father was Peter Warrington also a watchmaker.

James Warrington married Bridget Mary Reddy on the 22nd of August 1904. They lived in Pearse Street.

Bridget Warrington died in 1914 aged 39 years and is buried in St. Michael's Cemetery, Gorey.

James Warrington died in 1936 and is also buried in St. Michaels Cemetery, Gorey.

Family Headstone of Reddy and Warrington; St. Michael's Cemetery, Gorey.

The Travers Family.

The Travers Family; lived at No. 37 Main Street after the Reddy's. They also bought No. 38 Main Street.

In Thom's Directory of 1949; the businesses are recorded as "Fruiterer". No 37 is recorded as M. Travers and No.38 is recorded as E. Travers.

A descendent of the family – Milo Traver's became a town photographer during the 1940's and 1950's operating under the name The Crystal Photo Service Gorey.
