1911 Census

Every year James Doran erected a different Christmas light display. This was at a time when no other lights illuminated the street. They were also famous for their Santa.

They extended the electrical side of the business to include Television sets which were placed in the shop window for public viewing. A crowd would gather to view poor snowy black and white pictures in all sorts of weather.

Michael Doran was a well-known actor and singer with Gorey Musical Society.
