William Middleton was the landlord of the property for a long number of years. William Middleton died in 1904 he lived in Ballymoney Crossroads.

His wife died after him. They left money in trust for their daughter through a vehicle known as the Middleton Estate. Their daughter suffered from a disability of some sort so needed to be looked after.

The families given in more detail below are the Doyle's (Garrett Doyle) who was in the property for a number of years.

The Travers Family then also purchased the shop No 38 in later years.

The Travers Family had occupied the shop next door at No. 37 for a period of time.
