The Cherrick Family

The Cherrick Family occupied No 47 Main Street Gorey in the early part of the 20th century.

The family originated from Lithuania which would have been part of Russia at the time; and the family emigrated to England and then came to Ireland firstly settling in Dublin and then moved to Gorey and Arklow.

Bernard Cherrick took the oath of allegiance in 1907 in Dublin City. An image of the record is below.

Bernard Cherrick with his wife Amelia set up a shop at No 47 around 1909 running a business as antique and furniture dealer.

The family were of Jewish faith. Bernard is recorded as furniture dealer in the 1911 census.

Bernard then applied for General Dealer's licence which was granted on the 1st of January 1918.

A number of his children were born in Dublin with some then born in Gorey afterwards as recorded in the 1911 census.

There was also family in Arklow, County Wicklow; his brother David Cherrick.

The Hemenstall Family

The property then was taken over by the Hemenstalls.

This was the family of Stanley Hempenstall. It was ran as a grocery shop.

A descendent then sold it to Mc Cormacks Hardware Store around 1957 and it became part of the next building (no 46) when both properties were changed in layout to make a wide large hardware business store.
