NWHS do not have control over these venues or location types of access as terrain and access will vary due to the activities and sites we may visit. The bus is not currently wheel-chair accessible due to the size of the tour group.

The society cannot look after or take care of members during events. If you do need assistance to come along this is the member responsibility if deemed appropriate by the Tour Lead and the member must pay for all additional costs & charges incurred. The society does not pay for any carer or assistant access to activities or events.
